Disfigured – A Saudi Woman’s Story of Triumph

R8020

$15.00

Rania Al-Baz was the smiling face of a family program on Saudi television. She was the first Saudi woman TV anchor when her abusive husband assaulted her. Her agreement to make pictures of her injuries public sparked criticism of Saudi culture, and as a result the first Saudi research into domestic violence began in Riyadh. Rania’s memoir is not simply a story of the violence she suffered, nor is it a tale of revenge. It is a story of generosity of spirit, and of her evolution into an activist on behalf of women.

Warrior Princess

R8022

$22.00

Princess Kasune Zulu grew up in Africa trying to make sense of the mystery illness decimating the continent's people. Princess could not know the disease that claimed the lives of her parents and baby sister would go on to infect more than 100 million people worldwide. Princess later discovers she herself is HIV positive. Her journey has taken her from the dusty villages of Zambia to the White House and the United Nations. Her message is that we can become the first generation to end extreme poverty, if only we have the will to do so. Her story shows that even though life is uncertain and our time may be short, we each have a role to play in bringing healing and hope to our world.

The low prices that benefit consumers of industrialized nations often put the poor at even greater risk. As transnational corporations increase profits by reducing costs, laborers in Latin America, Asia, Africa or here in the U.S. work long hours but are still poor, hungry and subject to abuse. Topics addressed include the nature of globalization; how structural adjustment programs work; the use of slave labor; the needs of workers, especially women, for health care, adequate food and freedom from abuse; and the violence that comes from unregulated work environments.
