Claiming Earth as Common Ground

R8032

$16.99

Can people of faith save the environment? Can the environmental challenge save religion? Our planet is in trouble, and it will take an amazingly large and powerful force to shift into a more sustainable way of living. Spiritual leader and environmental activist Andrea Cohen-Kiener tells us that people of faith have the numbers, the passion and the mandate to do it-and that nothing else is strong enough to counterbalance "business as usual."

Connected Wisdom

R8015

$24.95

BONUS BOOK
(1 in SA & 1 in EFM)

In a spider's web, what happens on one part of the web affects every other part. The same is true of a living system, whether it be an ant colony, a forest or a city. Like a spider's web, a living system is so intricately woven that no part exists in isolation. Like a web, a living system is both purposeful and beautiful. With the wisdom of ancient storytellers, this beautiful book celebrates living systems, how they affect us and how they are affected by us. Counts as one book in SA and one book in EFM.

The Heart of Racial Justice

R8021

$15.00

The racial divide is one of the most pervasive problems the church faces. Why won't this problem just go away? In this book the authors make the crucial connection between the role of healing prayer and spiritual warfare in bringing about justice. Each of us must be challenged to identify the power of evil in the world and to give up our idols for the sake of Christ. Are you ready to find out how soul change leads to social change?

Not Just a One Night Stand

R8005

$14.00

In this faith-inspiring book, John flowers and Karen Vannoy call the church again to the Christ who is Lord who appears at the margins of established, respectable life. Their long co pastorate at the Travis Park United Methodist Church in San Antonio, TX, is a moving testimony to what can happen in a church that makes Christ Lord and looks for that Lord on the margins.

The True Cost of Low Prices The Violence of Globalization

R8029

$15.00

The low prices that benefit consumers of industrialized nations often put the poor at even greater risk. As transnational corporations increase profits by reducing costs, laborers in Latin America, Asia, Africa or here in the U.S. work long hours but are still poor, hungry and subject to abuse. Topics addressed include the nature of globalization; how structural adjustment programs work; the use of slave labor; the needs of workers, especially women, for health care, adequate food and freedom from abuse; and the violence that comes from unregulated work environments.

The Noticer

R8035

$17.99

Poverty, a failing marriage, old age, lost dreams. To the residents of Orange Beach, AL, these desperations are hopeless, barren places with no chance for change. But to an old drifter named Jones with a gift of seeing what others miss, there is no such thing as a dead end. It only takes a little "perspective" he says, to recognize the miracles in our moments, the seeds of greatness tucked into our struggles. As Jones mysteriously makes his way through this coastal town and into the searching hearts of its residents, he offers simple wisdom and sound hope. Available in CD audio, large print and Korean language versions.
